Subject: Microsoft Settlement

To whom it may concern,

In regards to the proposed settlement between Microsoft and the DOJ, I would like to make something clear. I absolutely oppose this arrangement. Specifically, I feel that if the US government feels that this is an appropriate punishment for violating the law, then I will make my voice heard with my wallet and my vote. If a citizen acted in this manner they would be in jail. At the very least see to it that the people who make the decisions at Microsoft are held appropriately accountable. That means you don't slap them on the wrist with a horrifically simple punishment. Do you really think the proposed settlement is a punishment?
